

BIOGRAPHY

MARGARET M. MAGUIRE

Ms. Maguire is the Comptroller of Naval Sea Systems Command, Washington D.C. She is a native of Gadsden, Alabama, and a graduate of the University of Maryland, College Park and the George Washington University. She began her career with the Navy in 1972 as a Management Intern at the Naval Ordnance Systems Command. She was appointed to the Senior Executive Service in May 2004.

In addition to working at the Naval Sea Systems Command, Ms Maguire has held financial management positions at the TRIDENT Ship Acquisition Program Office (PMS-396), the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Financial Management and Comptroller, and the Office of the Secretary of Defense, Comptroller.

She has substantial field-level experience serving in financial management positions at the Naval Surface Forces Command and the Training Command, U.S. Pacific Fleet. She had previously worked for the Supervisor of Shipbuilding and Repair in Long Beach, California.

Ms. Maguire served as the Special Assistant for Resources Management for the Naval Inspector General and as the Director of Resources Management at the Human Resources Operations Center.

Ms. Maguire has an undergraduate degree in Economics, a Master's Degree in Administration with a concentration in Public Financial Management, and a diploma from the Naval War College. She is married to Captain Tom Barnett, USN (retired). Their daughter, Lt jg Megan Barnett, is a 2003 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy.